Layout Ridge Beam Steel Support Beams (RS1 & RS2) to proper length as in diagram. Line up holes and bolt Steel Support Beams together using bolt set provided (Note: 4 bolts are to be used to fasten beams together at the centre and 2 bolts are to be used at either end to fasten 6" supports). Tighten bolts using 7/16" wrench.

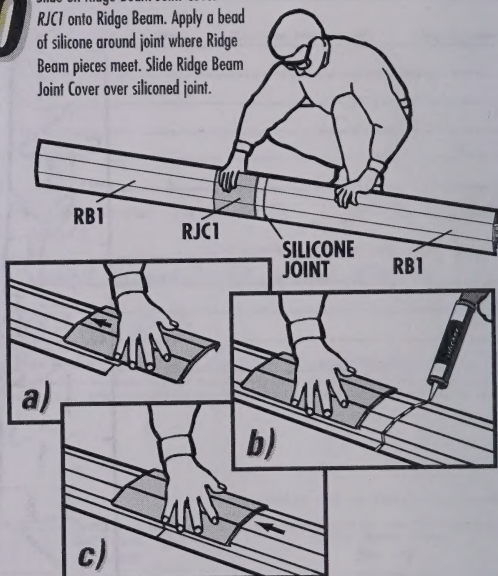

29

30

Slide on Ridge Beam Joint Cover RJC1 onto Ridge Beam. Apply a bead of silicone around joint where Ridge Beam pieces meet. Slide Ridge Beam Joint Cover over siliconed joint.

IMPORTANT!

IF YOU HAVE THE RECOMMENDED FIVE FEET OF CLEARANCE AT THE SIDES OF YOUR BUILDING

PROCEED TO STEP 32

If you do not have the recommended five feet of clearance on one side, you may follow these assembly instructions as an alternative:

31

Working from the inside of the building, slide roof Joiner Panel JW1 into fascia FG at rear and front of building. Note: You must remove both gables from the side that you have the clearance on to slide the JW1 panels down.

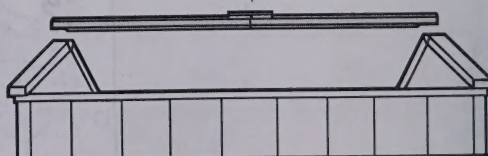

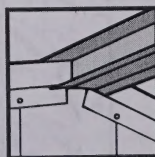

Next, install Groove Panel PW1 and continue until entire side of roof is complete. Important: Make sure you slide roof panels down approximately eight inches from top of roof to allow the installation of the Ridge Beam.

Install Ridge Beam as shown at Step 32 making sure bottom wing of Ridge Beam fits under Fascia Gables (FG1 & FG2) at each end of walls.

Slide Joiner Panel JW1 nearest outside wall into Ridge Beam and continue at Step 35.

32

Add Ridge Beam. Make sure bottom wing of Ridge Beam fits under Fascia Gables (FG1 & FG2) at each end of walls.

Service from Grace Epis.
Church 11:00 A.M., Friday Jan. 8, 1981 here, Bethel Com., Tecumseh, Kans.-
N.H. Niccum never did send me his own family records - just that the Gardner Sweet he sought was husband of his ancestor's sister. His ancestor being Epay Childre who in Graham Niccum who d. before or shortly after her sister Frances Childre in Gordon Sweet in Ven. Co. Ill. 12-28-1837 & that soon after this move + her family went west Epay + her family (Childres) Gardner + Francis (Childres) Sweet to Macon Co. Ill. or were gone from there by 1850 census. Is there a printed index for Ill. 1842 census? (None or your first of one in Anderson Library.) I have copy of the Quetelet part of U.S. 1840 Index (the last most complete as I have several Sweet's in 1840 census records that are not in that Index).

Gardner Sweet (b. ca 1818 Ind.) m. 12-28-1837 Danville, Vermillion Co. Ill.
 Frances Childree (Childrey, Childers) dau. of Thomas Childree + Elizabeth his will 11-2-1843 prob 3-4-1844 Danville Ill. named 8 daus. inc. "Fanny Sweet" + Gardner Sweet signed for his wife's share of the estate (per Mr. Niccum) no sons ment. in will of Thomas Childree, but Mr. N. thought there were at least 2 sons + probably 3. Maybe the Gardner Sweet here 1860 + 1870 died in this county - could you go there + see if there is an estate record for him?

He graduated with honors from Ball State University with a bachelor of science in Education in 1966 and master of arts in 1972.

He began student teaching at Madison Heights Junior High School in 1966 and continued teaching with Anderson Community School Corporation until he retired from Anderson High School in 2004 after 38 years as a dedicated health, physical education and driver's education teacher. After retirement, Joe continued to teach driver's ed at The Driving Center until the fall of 2018.

Joe loved traveling to Florida [mdash] a childhood tradition, spending Christmas in Lauderdale-by-the-Sea. He, along with his wife and children, continued visiting Florida yearly.

Joe was a devoted husband and father; he found complete fulfillment in his roles with his family and the depth of loss felt in his passing is indescribable.

He is survived by his loving wife, Bobbi (Jackson) Crouch; children, Janel Bantz (fiancé, Cole Keesling) and Kevin (Lindsay) Crouch; grandchildren, Luke Bantz, Carter Bantz, Ethan Crouch and grandson on the way; sister, Janet Mishler; sister-in-law, Patty Crouch; mother-in-law, Dorothy Jackson; sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law, Millie (Danny) Warrum, Margy Brow, Juliann (Bill) Williams and John (Tina) Jackson; and several nieces and nephews and lifelong friends.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Jim Crouch; father-in-law, Robert Jackson; and brother-in-law, Mike Brow.

A Celebration of Life will be at 6 p.m. Wednesday, March 20, at Brown-Butz-Diedring Funeral Service & Crematory with Pastor P.T. Morgan officiating. Visitation to follow the celebration. In lieu of flowers, Joe asks you to pay it forward.

A special thanks to the St. Vincent Hospice Group; Natasha, Kelli, Vickie and Pam, who provided such loving care and kindness to our entire family and especially Joe. We are eternally grateful.

They then moved to the Center area where they farmed and raised their 5 children. In 2008 they moved to the Colorado Veterans Center at Homelake, where Carl passed away. Later meeting Sam Wilcox whom she would marry. Most important to her was her family and her unwavering faith in God.

HISTORY

QUEEN ANNE PARISH (St. Barnabas Church, Leeland)

In 1704 the parishioners of St. Paul's Church at Baden in lower Prince George's County, Maryland, petitioned the Maryland General Assembly that their parish was too large to be properly served by one rector. They further petitioned that the inhabitants of the upper part of Prince George's County should have the services of another clergyman and that St. Paul's Parish should be divided into two parts. In the same year the petition was granted and Queen Anne Parish was created from the northern portion of St. Paul's Parish.

The first parish church of Queen Anne Parish was a frame building which had been a Chapel of Ease in St. Paul's Parish for some time prior to 1704. Some of the records in the Parish Register date back to 1686 and are transcriptions from the chapel records.

The Chapel of Ease was replaced by a brick building begun in April, 1708 and finished in June, 1715.

The third and present building of St. Barnabas Church on this site was begun in 1771 and finished in 1776. It stands today, a large, austere Colonial structure with an adjoining cemetery. A major restoration project was completed in 1975.

The baptismal font which is still in use was brought from St. Barnabas Church in England in 1719. A silver communion service which is used today, was made in England each piece being engraved "St. Barnabas Church of Merreland 1718."

The parish is active and attracts families who have moved into recently developed housing areas nearby. Queen Anne School, grades 7-12, is a recent addition.

St. Barnabas Church at Leeland is a show spot for those interested in the history of Prince George's County. It is a quiet country church, maintained through the many years by generations of loyal parishioners.

to "bee buried in a Decent (not Pompous) manner". It named son Thomas Truman Greenfield, daughters Martha Waring, Ann Wight, and Jane Hawkins, and a dozen grandchildren. The part of greatest interest to us is that which directs that her daughter Martha Waring is to receive the negro "boye" Leander and "molatto girl Fyana".... provided said daughter Waring give her daughter Martha Burgess the girl Fyana. (Liber #1, folio 293, Orphans Court of Pr. Geo. Co., Md.)

4. ANN⁴ BURGESS (Charles^{3,2}William¹), b. probably Pr. Geo. Co., Md., evidently between Dec. 1739 (the time when Charles² Burgess made his will) and Sept. 1740; d. evidently before 22 Dec. 1804, for she is not mentioned in her husband's will, made then. She mar. prob. before 1760 James Haddock⁴ Smith, b. ---, d. 1806 (will 22 Dec. 1804-4 Nov. 1806, Pr. Geo. Co., Md.), son of William³ Smith and his 2nd wife, Jane⁴ Edmonston. William³ Smith was the son of Nathan² (Thomas¹ of Calvert Co.), who d. 1711, and his wife Elizabeth² Coale, b. 1671, daughter of William¹ Coale (a well known Quaker of early Md.) and his third wife, Elizabeth Thomas (daughter of Philip Thomas and wife Sarah Harrison). Wm. Coale was in Md. at least by 1672, for the "Journal of George Fox" speaks of having a "large and precious meeting at William Coale's" in September of that year. (Hall, Clayton C., ed. Narratives of Early Md., p. 399 [1910])

It was a descendant, Miss Clara Gordon then of Georgetown, Ohio, now of Homestead, Florida, who put us on the right track for the ancestry of James H. and Anne (Burgess) Smith. She kindly gave us a resume of the whole Smith descent, and said that the parish records of Md. give the dates of births, baptisms, and marriages.

She added that Ann Smith, half-sister of James Haddock Smith, married (Capt.) Basil Burgess, brother of Ann (Burgess) Smith. This was called "snapping sisters" and was thought to bring good luck while for two sisters to marry two brothers brought bad luck. She said that Charles Burgess Smith, son of James H. and Ann, married his cousin Lucy Burgess. Beers's "Hist. of Brown Co., Ohio" says: "He was an early Baptist minister in southern Ohio and died in Highland Co. His body was brought to Arnheim, Brown Co., Ohio, and buried in the midst of his congregation".

James Haddock Smith had a gr-grandson of the same name who served in the Ohio Legislature from Brown Co. in 1847. The latter had a nephew who was a lawyer living in 1946 in Mt. Vernon, Washington-- then aged over 75.

Miss Gordon's grandmother (her mother's mother) was a sister of the second James Haddock Smith and of Basil Burgess Smith.

The name "James Haddock" in the family, came down from Col. James Haddock of Marlboro, whom Sarah (Marsham) Waring married³ as her second husband. Even though Col. Haddock was only his step-father, Capt. Basil³ Waring, Jr., was evidently very fond or very proud of him, for he named one of his sons for him. Major Francis⁴ Waring

The Carr Family - has been written about, but I'm not sure of the author. I think Park A. Carr, postmaster of Harrogate (now deceased) worked on the family history. Contact Paula Gammell, Tennessee Valley Publications, 1345 Oak Ridge Turn Pike #118, Oak Ridge, TN 37830

Maynard Head - now working at Cumberland College has written of early lifestyle and published it in many newspapers and some were published in books.

Joe Clark - a noted photographer published several pictorial books of the area. He is now deceased and I understand that all or most of his books are out of print.

CLAIBORNE COUNTY HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL SOURCE BOOKS

Information on the following is credited to Roy Bowman e-mail: rbowman@connecti.com for additional information or clarification.

The following has been extracted from a booklet "Inventory of Historical Writings" by Bonnie Mazingo Page, 1991. The booklet covers Anderson, Campbell, and Union Counties in addition to Claiborne and costs $3.00 plus $1.00 postage (her address is listed below). [Note: Bonnie Page's books are a terrific value]

The Rural Route addresses listed in the booklet have since been changed to regular street addresses to facilitate 911 emergencies. We have tried to update as many of these addresses that we could from listings at switchboard.com.

Many of the books are out of print and are only available in libraries and private collections.

All of the following is the extract from "Inventory of Historical Writings".
A few notes & address changes added where available.

CLAIBORNE COUNTY

This is the third of the four counties of which I'm compiling the historical materials that have been written about the county and the people. Much has been published about Claiborne County through the years. That is good, but I'm not sure if all the writings were published in a book or collection. Perhaps, someday, those early historical accounts will be put in book form. I'm referring to those by Cloud and others that have appeared in newspapers from time to time.

"Claiborne County" by Holt was sponsored and published by the State

ANCESTRY

By Edgar A. Guest

When speaking of our ancestry, my mother's eyes would shine

And proudly she would tell us all:

"You're of the Tudor line."

But father with a smile would say:

"While bearing that in mind,

You keep your eyes on goals ahead;

Not those that lie behind.

You have a noble ancestry, but all dead and gone.

'Tis you who have to prove your worth, not those who journeyed on.

And back along that Tudor line, 'tis sorry truth I state,

There may be some you can't approve,

and even some you'd hate.

"The way to prove your ancestry is what you are yourself:

Not by the charted family tree in books upon the shelf.

So try to be an ancestor, within the time allowed,

Of whom your children's children in the future can be proud."

She was the daughter of Louis Hammond, born in South Carolina, May 20, 1785, who served in the second South Carolina regiment in the war of 1812, and was killed in a battle near Washington, D. MRS. EDWARD C. LAY

231 - 46TH STREET

SANDUSKY, OHIO 44870

November 27, 1981

My dear Shirley,

How nice of you to answer my letter about TRUAX, Sweet, and Wilson. Isn't it queer to have that combination of names?

I am sure that my Truax family were in New York until they moved as Wilsons to Alma, Michigan.

About 5-6 years ago I went to NYC to work with a friend of mine at the NYGBS we were both looking for her New York early Dutch lines (for my husband) and I spent the time going through everything they had from the House of Truax published by the Register. I was hardly home when a Mr. Noah Truax called me on his way back to California and he came to see us and told me that they had material that Mrs. Hires had sent them that I should have looked at. When I was in NYC for Christmas (3 of our girls lived in NYC then) I went and looked at her material. His name is Mr. Noah Truax
446 Sunnyslope
Oakland, California 94610

He sent me a notice that they were starting this TRUAX organization but it said that he had been sick. His family were Pennsylvania and Ohio from N.J. Before that a lady from Laconia, N.H. had joined our OGS First Family of Ohio (in Ohio before 1820).. She hasn't answered my last letter but her name was: Mrs. Bette T. Whitney, 1500 Old North Main Street, Laconia, N.H. 03246.

Her family was also from N.J. to Pennsylvania to Ohio. Perhaps one of them could help you.

Mr. Truax has copied much material for me and sent it on, but I am sure that my family were in New York.

I have been to the Ft. Wayne Library twice and isn't it wonderful? Haven't been back since they built the addition.

I saw Mrs. Hires sons name as on the nomination committee for some organization I belong to so wrote him and he copied what his Mother had on my Mother's line. He has since died.

I certainly wish there was some printed genealogy on Sweet.

A man in Newtown, Connecticut sent me my Wilson line as he had worked on about 50 Wilson families of New England to find his Wilson. Am still working on one wife, have searcher doing that. They were R. I., Connecticut New York family.

I belong to FFO on Major Haffield White who with his son Pelatiah (and another son) went to Marietta in May 1788 and were PIONEERS there. My Grandmother Watkins's family came through this line. I have the book with it in. My grandmother, Mary Augusta Malster went up to Morgan County to teach and met my Watkins Grandfather.

If you can find anything in a Sweet genealogy that would be fine, but I doubt it. This is what I have for sure:

Patricia¹ Watkins, Maude² Wilson Watkins, Millison³ Rachel Truax Wilson, Eliza Sweet⁴ m. James Truax; Josiah⁵ Sweet and Eunice Day both buried in Adams Co. Wisconsin (from New York State); Joshua Sweet⁶, Capt. War of 1812(1774-1850) m. in Roxbury, Conn. Mary Hurd(1774-1853) lived in St. Lawrence Co., N.Y. This is where it gets sticky. Can't find anything on Mary Hurd from the HURD expert that lives near here, he can't identify her; Josiah Sweet was in Woodbury before 1747 and died 16 Dec. 1776 ~~when his father Joshua~~ died marching with the army. Josiah's wife's name was Elizabeth^{7-?} and nobody can find who she was but she was Guardian 7 July 1778 of her son Joshua; There was a Joshua^{8-?} Sweet who died in Danbury before 6 May 1751 who married a Susannah[?] (we think Nichols) and she had been appointed with a Samuel Nichols of Danbury as co-Guardian with the mother Susannah as co-Guardian of Josiah and Susannah Sweet. The records from these years are bad in Danbury. So, I have six generations proved. Mary Hurd of the 6th is sticky. Josiah and wife Elizabeth[?] of the 7th can't be proved; and Joshua of the 8th generation, with a wife Susanna.

Mr. Hurd who lives in Clyde has asked his friend Mr. Strong, a Past President of the Connecticut Society to help him. Mr. Strong lives in Woodbury. They are both very good and they can't straighten it out. I have another HURD line that Mr. Hurd identified right away marrying into the Bristol family, and so I send money[?] to the museum in Woodbury, John² Hurd house. So this is where I am now.

There is a Mrs. Trella Hall that writes to anybody advertising for Sweet and she writes to me but she gets me more confused than I was to start with. The Sweets were from Rhode Island and were "bone setters" and very good Episcopalians.

I have one more sheet to fill out for the Truax family, sent the early ones in.

I have always thought TRUAX a lovely name and hope I get it settled before I go to the Happy Hunting Ground!!

Sincerely,

Patricia W. Lutz

Are 1830 & 1840 indexes for it available? or 1860 & 1870?

I have 1880 Soudex for Sweets' in Tenn. - would you like? (of course they don't have any families who had no children under 10 - so not complete! I also have 1880 Soudex for Sweets' in Ala. (only to the 1st) Colo., Ga., Ill. (also index for 1850) Ind., Iowa, Kans., Ky., La., Miss., Mo., N.J., N.C., Ohio, Pa., S.C., Tenn., Texas & Va. Copied & sent me by Joe of Del City, Okla. he passed away about 2 years ago and these were all he got. (Had Eng. States were not available in the Okla. City Library at that time - so he didn't get the ones we needed most) Would you like any or all of them? (You see I don't know how far you want to go on them - me I want everything I can get up to 1900 ha!)

Well now it's Aug. 30 and nearly time to go home - fix supper & get ready to go to our Duplicate Bridge game in Great Bend (23 mi. N.E. of here) - My weekly sin ha! Do you play?

33 Roof and Door Assembly

Parts Needed:

- 10 Roof Joiner Panels
- 8 Roof Groove Panels
- 4 Roof Fascia Caps
- 2 Roof Fascia Cap Covers
- 2 Doors
- 2 Door Sweeps
- 4 Door Pins
- 2 Door Handles
- 8 Door Handle Screws #9 x 1" (2.54cm)
- 1 Slide Lock
- 2 Ridge Beam End Caps
- Screws, #10 x 3/4" (1.90cm)

 Lay out all the required panels on the ground around the building in their proper sequence.

THE ENTIRE DOOR INCLUDING ALL WOOD MUST BE PAINTED WITHIN THE FIRST 30 DAYS OF INSTALLATION WITH A HIGH QUALITY EXTERIOR TRIM PAINT.

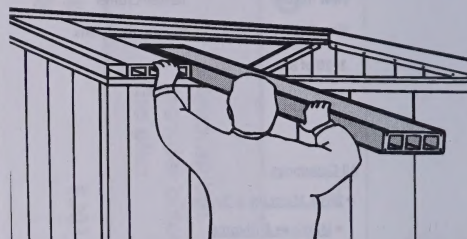

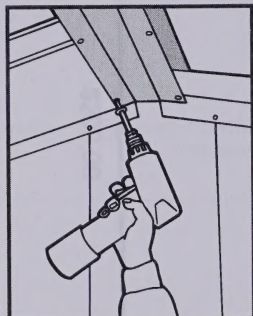

(Paint not included.)

To ensure good paint adhesion, the pre-painted surface should be lightly roughened to break the surface using 360 grit sandpaper in the flat areas and steel wool along the embossment. The surface should then be cleaned to remove dirt, foreign debris, oils etc. and wiped dry with a clean towel.

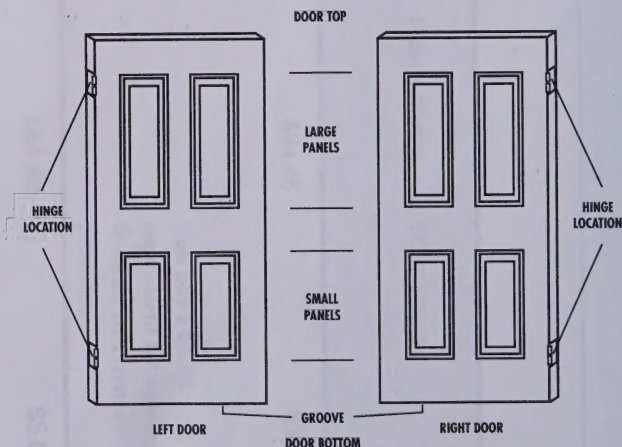

34 Working from the outside of the building, slide roof Joiner Panel JW1 into Fascia Gable FG at rear of building.
 Hint: Make sure panel is fully seated into the Ridge Beam.

35 Install 1 screw only into corner of Ridge Beam RB1 into hole nearest outside wall.

36 Next, add roof Groove Panel PW1 and install screw into Ridge Beam hole only where Groove Panel PW1 meets Joiner Panel JW1.
 Continue to add Roof Panels and screws until both sides of roof are built.

37 To verify that your door is standing properly, ensure that the two larger panels are on top. The two smaller panels and the groove for the Door Sweep DS are on the bottom. When the Hinge Plates DH are installed the prongs on the Hinge Plate DH must face outward.

38

Install the Door Sweep DS onto each door by gently tapping the sweep into the grooves on the door bottom.

Important: Do not install Door Sweep DS until you have painted the doors.

Before you attach the Hinge Plate DH please identify the correct position of the hinge using diagram a. The correct position of the hinge for the left door is (a) with the etched crown right-side up and facing you and (b) with the larger opening of the beveled screw holes facing you. The correct position of the hinge for the right door is (a) with the etched crown upside-down and facing you and (b) with the larger opening of the beveled screw holes facing you. Line up Hinge Plates DH so that they are parallel with the back of the door frame as in diagram b. Make sure that the two prongs are facing outward. Insert the two outside screws first to ensure the hinge is properly aligned.

42

Next, install Astrigal AST on left door of the building.

Position Astrigal

on inside of left door so that the screw locator holes on the Astrigal are positioned on the left door and the positioning fin on the Astrigal fits tightly against edge of left door. Mark hole locations on left door while holding Astrigal in place. Drill 1/16" diameter holes, making sure that the drill does not penetrate the exterior side of the door. Install Astrigal with #10 x 3/4" screws provided.

41

Install Door Handles HL in pre-drilled holes with curved end of handle facing outside of building.

Shirley H.
 I had this from 2 other people
 One of them said "this Index includes family members, when there are any to record". So we must assume that none of these Sweets had any - eh?
 Am returning this in case you want to loan it to some one else. T.M.H.

(really Sweet? or sp. correct?)

*this could be Ansel Sweet b. 1818 Orinda Co.
 N.Y. son of Rev. Theophilus - & who is sup-to have gone to Calif. during the gold rush & was back in Morgan Co. Ill. by Oct. 18, 1850 census. Depends on when this Calif. one made & if he is proper, please was not him if it is.
 personally, I doubt it is him*

also

Nevada City Calif. p - David Sweet 37 (some guy says copied wrong by my copier? or some guy counted twice & hid about his age in one of them?)

Does your Library have anything from the "Accelerated Indexing Systems Inc. of 3346 South Orchard Drive, Bonticue, Utah 84010" called "Computer Search KEY" or know anything about this service? I have all R.I. census for 1774-1782-1790-1800-1810-1820 - and all of 1830 & 1840 except for Providence & Newport Counties. But had nothing of its 1850 census. I got your Index - so it was very helpful! (Cont. back of Tom!)

I also think the "R's" after page #s here should be "B's" at least all the ones I saw were A or B not R.

The 1840 Index for Mich. is alphabetized of course - but I have copied them into my book by counties as fol.
